CLASSICS

If there is a special descriptive word for this season, it's probably CLASSIC. The longing for stability and values is materializing in the collection's trajectory; a turning away from the overlapping and extreme forms of the past seasons. Instead, tailoring and craftsmanship are expressed in almost all topics. Within the group we find a stylish homage to couture and CLASSIC.

CLASSIC design looks like to be equipped with sporty details and include the equestrian style in a neutral pallet with a touch of vivid color.

JOIE DE VIVRE

The fashion moves in all directions: Rusticity and Purism; CLASSIC and Club Culture have rarely been so significantly close together as this winter. In troubled times, fashion is characterized by a high need for protection in the form of rusticity and folklore whilst a growing conservatism or formality through classicism tradition and tailoring. With the pandemic ending, the joy of newly won freedom is also evident. The clothing a symbol of celebration and regained JOIE DE VIVRE and a high degree of extroversion.

STRIPE STRIKE

The theme moves between hyper elegance influences grow CLASSIC couture and an extroverted retro charm. Often the collections move on a fine line between day and evening wear. Glamorous surfaces, distinguished colors with accents and a preference for high quality fabrics characterize the style. Casual and urban silhouettes area guarantee for comfort and coziness this season. This topic is all cocooning mixes formality with informality, including the CLASSIC product groups with spacious knitwear.

SHIMMERING

Discover the hottest key looks. Give your outfits a glamorous finish with shimmering fabrics of stylish patterns and CLASSY accents. Perfect for the festive season but also to make casual looks street ready. From festive to casual styling favorites that shouldn't be missing from your winter wardrobe. BLACK is BACK!
